SHOOTS STEPSON, WIFE, THEN SUICIDES, AFTER QUARREL

Detroit, Mich., July 23. — Crazed with anger because his stepson would not go to work, while his own son was drawing $5 a day at the Ford plant, Chester Hall, 58, of Grand Rapids, shot and killed the stepson, Henry Tunis, 18, and his wife, Anna, 38, at the home of his son, Roy Hall. He blew off his own head with a shotgun.

Hall and his wife came here from Grand Rapids two weeks ago to visit at the home of their son. The stepson arrived here Monday.

TODAY'S STRIKE SITUATION

Bayonne, N. J.—Situation tense, sheriff has 300 special deputies about the plant in final effort to avoid calling for troops and strikers have obtained many rifles. Desultory firing throughout night and early morning.

New York.—Union decides not to call out 30,000 employes of independent clothing manufacturers at noon as had been intended. Practically all workers in other concerns back at work, their terms agreed to by the manufacturer.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Strike practically ended on concession of 8-hour day. Union officials say strikes will follow at Springfield, Providence, Hyde Park, Boston and other cities where munitions are being made.

Palmer, Mass.—The Wright Wire Co.'s plant closed, following strike of employes demanding 8-hour day.

Brooklyn.—Concession of 8-hour day without reduction of wages ended threat of strike at E. W. Bliss Co. torpedo plant.

New York.—2,000 longshoremen out, say strikers at piers of Mallory and Clyde steamship companies. 1,200 out say employers and 700 strikebreakers at work.
